

Help keep the Flying Doctor flying

Donate today

The Royal Flying Doctor Service is a not for profit organisation that provides essential services to people living, working and travelling in remote and regional Australia. As well as providing world-leading emergency medical services 24 hours a day, the RFDS helps save lives by providing primary health care services such as GP Clinics, Child and Maternal Health Clinics, Mental Health programs and dental care. Your donation will help to purchase and fit-out our aircraft, purchase vital medical equipment and help fund essential health services.
